

Quaker, Quaker

Source:
William Wells Newell
Games and Songs of American Children
New York: Dover Publications, Inc., 1963

Child 1:

"Qua - ker, Qua - ker, how is thee?"
(art)

Child 2:

"Ve - ry well, I thank thee."

---

Child 1:

"How's thy neigh - bor, next to thee?"

Child 2:

"I don't know, but I'll go see."

Game Directions

The question is accompanied by a rapid movement of the right hand. The second child in the ring inquires in the same manner of the third; and so all round. Then the same question is asked with a like gesture of the left hand, and, after this has gone round, with both hands, left foot, right foot, both feet, and finally by uniting all the motions at once. "A nice long game," as our little informant said.