

Froggie in the Meadow

Informant/Performer:
Group of girls
Heaton School, Heaton, NC, 1939

Source:
Library of Congress AFS 2860 A2
Collected by Herbert Halpert

Transcribed by Gail Needleman

Game Directions

One child is frog and stands in the middle of the circle. Children close eyes and walk in a circle, singing the song. By the end of the second time through, the frog has escaped through the circle and is hiding. Children open their eyes, singing "Froggie's gone," and then hunt for the frog. The person who finds him becomes the next frog. (Children can also hide a small frog puppet instead.)