

Frosty Weather

Informant/Performer:
The Clancy children
Carrick-on-Suir, Tipperary, Ireland, 1950s

Source:
So Early In the Morning
Tradition Records TLP 1034
Collected by Diane Hamilton

♩ = 88

Fros - ty weath - er, snow - y weath - er.

When the wind blows, we all go to - geth - er.

Transcribed by Gail Needleman

Other types of weather can be added or substituted [sunny weather, foggy weather, etc.]

Game Directions

Children dance in a circle holding hands. On "We all go together", they raise hands and swoop to the center of the circle. Other types of weather can be added or substituted (sunny weather, foggy weather, etc.)