

A Mince Pie or a Pudding

Source:

Edward Deming Andrews

The Gift to be Simple

New York: J.J. Augustin, 1940

Wel - come here, wel - come here, All be a - live and be of good cheer.

I've got a pie all baked com - plete, And pud - ding too that's ve - ry sweet.

Background Information

A cheerful little "welcome" song with a light-hearted cadence, one of many used in the Shaker families to welcome friends, especially visitors in the eldership or ministry. The Shaker speed is "sub-allegro."